Food for Thought
Graphic art meets snack time in this vibrant art piece. We love the warm hues and the edgy, triangular pattern or this pear art piece. With its big bold numbers, teaching baby to count will be easy as 1-2-3! ($20 at Art.com)

Sail Away
We love super mod spins on a classic design, and this print is no different. The simple color palate and Tommy Hilfiger-esque nautical design stays stylish long after baby's outgrown diapers, too. ($20 at Art.com)
